To Beihang University:

According to applicable regulations for foreigners to study in China, I am aware of that I should provide the Non-Criminal Record Report for my application to study in Beihang University. Since I am not able to provide the Non-Criminal Record Report, here I confirm and promise:

I personally have no criminal record, no history of violating laws and regulations within or outside China. My personal credit is good. I meet the conditions for a non-criminal record for foreigners studying in China. All the legal consequences and losses caused by the false promises, as well as the penalties such as cancellation of my admission, are personally borne by me.
