Dr. Azizzadeh,
Head of Brazil-Based Health Supervisors

Dear Dr. Azizzadeh,

Subject: Resumption of Production

Re letter n° 96/45/138 dated 6 Farvardin 1396 (March 26, 2017), pertaining to a halt in production and loading of frozen boneless beef in Brazil, and referring to the email dated March 28, 2017, the subject of which was report on meeting with Brazilian Beef Exporters Association (ABIEC), I wish to inform you that on the strength of IVO's decisions adopted during a meeting on 8 Farvardin 1396 (March 28, 2017), it is presently permitted – except for consignments of JJZ Slaughterhouse SIF2156 – to resume production and load frozen boneless beef in slaughterhouses where IVO's health supervisors are based immediately upon receiving the IHR related to frozen boneless beef approved (sealed and signed) by Brazil's federal veterinary authorities and receipt of all the documentation and proof from Brazil's Ministry of Agriculture, in strict compliance with all the regulations and directives communicated.
