GREEN RIVER

GREEN RIVER NATIONAL MONUMENT

The Green River National Monument is a public land owned by the United States Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management. It is located in the southeastern part of the state of Wyoming, near the town of Green River. The monument was established in 1909 to protect the natural resources of the area, including the Green River and the surrounding mountains. The monument is a popular destination for outdoor recreation, including hiking, fishing, and hunting. It is also a significant area for scientific research, particularly in the field of geology and paleontology.
