Special Session: Savanna Burning Challenges and Opportunities – Auditorium Germano de Barros Souza
14:00-14:10	Introducing fire management challenges and opportunities in savannas	Jeremy Russel-Smith Charles Darwin University, Australia
14:10-14:30	Integrated fire management in Brazilian indigenous lands	Rodrigo de Moraes Falleiro Brazilian Institute for Environment and Renewable Natural Resources (Ibama), Brazil
14:30-15:20	Fire Management in Xingu	Introduced by Katia Onu Socio Environmental Institute (ISA), Brazil
	Fire management and the interface with the territorial protection of the Xingu Indigenous Land Association (ATIX)	Tahugaki Kalapalo, Xingu Indigenous Land Association (ATIX), Brazil
	Fire management by the Javaé people in Ilha do Bananal	Vantuíres Oliveira Martins Javaé Javaé Indigenous Organization Council of the Ilha do Bananal (CONJABA), Brazil
15:20-15:40	Discussion
Break
16:10-16:30	Parupa participatory and intercultural fire management network	Bibiana Bilbao Simón Bolívar University, Venezuela
16:30-16:50	Fire management in Brazilian federal protected areas: outcomes and perspectives	Christian Niel Berlinck Chico Mendes Institute for Conservation of Biodiversity (ICMBio), Brazil
16:50-17:10	The International Savanna Fire Management Initiative (ISFMI)	Robin Beatty 3 2 1 Fire!, Mozambique
17:10-17.30	Australian experience with the development and application of savanna burning projects	Cameron Yates Charles Darwin University, Australia
17:30-17:50	Market-based instruments for incentivising sustainable fire management in fire-prone savannas	Jeremy Russell-Smith Charles Darwin University, Australia
17:50-18:30	Discussion	