INDICATIONS

RELEASE

In order to maintain the novelty of the applications denied and dismissed, the Office of Trademarks, Industrial Designs, and Geographical Indications communicates that:

- a) Based on INPI's Gazette No. 2554, the publication of the order of denial or dismissal of application of industrial design application does not entail the publication of drawings or pictures of the relevant industrial drawing.
- b) This measure will provide to the user the possibility to file again the previously denied or dismissed application, without the loss of novelty.
- c) The publication of drawings or pictures of the industrial design which registration has been granted is maintained.
