

MANAGEMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE ERRORS

In the event of an error by the competent authorities in the proper management of the preferential system at export, and in particular in the application of Chapter 3, if this error leads to consequences in terms of import duties, the Party facing such consequences may request the Trade Council to examine the possibility of adopting appropriate measures with a view to resolving the situation.

---